The constitution of the

Wandsworth Society

March 2012

1. NAME
The name of the Society shall be the ‘Wandsworth Society’.

2. OBJECTS
The Society is established for the public benefit for the following purposes in the area comprising the central area of the London Borough of Wandsworth which area shall hereinafter be referred to as ‘the area of benefit’

a) To promote high standards of planning and architecture in or affecting the area of benefit.

b) To stimulate the interest of the public in the geography, history, natural and social history, architecture and character of the area of benefit.

c) To secure the preservation, protection, development and improvement of features of historic or public interest in the area of benefit.

In furtherance of these purposes the Society through its Executive Committee shall have the following powers:

a) To promote civic pride in the area of benefit.

b) To promote research into subjects directly connected with the objects of the Society and to publish the results of any such research.

In order to promote or assist in promoting activities of a charitable nature throughout the area of benefit, the Society shall have the following powers:

a) To acquire, by purchase, gift or otherwise, property whether subject to any special trust or not.

b) Subject to such consents as may be required by law, to sell, let, mortgage, dispose of, or turn to account, all or any of the property or funds of the Society as shall be necessary.

c) To do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the attainment of the said purposes.

3. MEMBERSHIP
Membership shall be open to all who are interested in actively furthering the purposes of the Society.

a) No member shall have the power to vote at any meeting of the Society if his or her subscription is in arrears at the time.

b) Organisations shall be such societies, associations, educational institutions or businesses as are interested in actively furthering the purposes of the Society. An organisation shall appoint a representative to vote on its behalf at all meetings but before such representative exercises his or her right to vote the corporate member shall give particulars in writing to the Secretary of such representative.

c) The subscription of a member joining the Society in the three months preceding the subscription renewal date shall be regarded as covering membership for the following year.

4. SUBSCRIPTIONS
Annual subscription shall be collected annually from the following categories of membership:

- Individual members
- Family/household members
- Students/senior citizens
- Organisations

Subscriptions shall be reasonable sums as the Executive Committee shall determine from time to time, as decided by the Society at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting and it shall be payable on or before 1st January each year. Membership shall lapse if the subscription is unpaid 3 months after it is due.
5. MEETINGS
An Annual General Meeting shall be held before the end of March of each year 14 days’ notice having been given to receive the Executive Committee’s report and accounts for the previous year ended 31 December and to elect Officers and Members of the Committee.

a) The Committee shall decide when ordinary meetings of the Society shall be held.
b) Special General Meetings of the Society shall be held at the written request of 15 or more members whose subscriptions are fully paid-up.
c) 25 members personally present shall constitute a quorum for a Meeting of the Society.
d) The Committee shall give at least 7 days’ notice to members of all Meetings of the Society.

6. OFFICERS
The Officers of the Society shall be:-
Chairman
Vice Chairman
Secretary
Treasurer
Membership Secretary
all of whom shall relinquish their office every year and shall be eligible for re-election at the Annual General Meeting.

a) A President and Vice-Presidents may also be elected at a General Meeting of the Society, for periods to be decided at such a meeting.
b) The Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt to fill casual vacancies occurring among the Officers of the Society.
c) Nominations for the election of Officers shall be made in writing to the Secretary at least 7 days before the Annual General Meeting. Such nominations shall be supported by a seconder and the consent of the proposed nominee must first have been obtained.
d) The elections of Officers shall be completed prior to the election of further Committee members

e) Nominees for election as Officers or Committee members shall declare at the Annual General Meeting at which their election is to be considered any financial or professional interest known or likely to be of concern to the Society

f) If the nominations exceed the number of vacancies, a ballot shall take place in such manner as shall be determined.

7. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the management and administration of the Society.

a) The Executive Committee shall consist of the Officers and not fewer than 4 and not more than 6 other members.
b) The Committee shall have power to co-opt further members (who shall attend in an advisory and non-voting capacity).
c) The President and Vice-Presidents may attend any meeting of the Executive Committee but shall not vote at any such meeting.
d) In the event of an equality in the votes cast the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
e) Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting of the Society and outgoing members may be re-elected.
f) The Executive Committee shall meet not less than 6 times a year at intervals of not more than 2 months and the Secretary shall give all members not less than 7 days’ notice of each meeting.
g) The quorum shall, as near as may be, comprise one third of the members of the Executive Committee.
h) The Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt to fill up to 3 casual vacancies occurring among the members of the Executive Committee between General Meetings.

8. SUB-COMMITTEES
The Executive Committee may establish such sub-committees from time to time as shall be considered necessary.

a) The Chairman and Secretary of each sub-committee shall be appointed by the Executive Committee and all actions and proceedings of each sub-committee shall be reported to and be confirmed by the Executive Committee as soon as possible.
b) Members of the Executive Committee may be members of any sub-committee.
c) Sub-Committees shall be subordinate to and may be regulated or dissolved by the Executive Committee.

9. DECLARATION OF INTEREST
It shall be the duty of every member who is in any way directly or indirectly interested financially or professionally in any item... discussed at any meeting of the Society (including any meeting of any Committee or Sub-Committee) at which he or she may be present to declare such interest and he or she shall not discuss such item (except by invitation of the Chairman) or vote thereon.

10. EXPENSES OF ADMINISTRATION AND APPLICATIONS OF FUNDS
The Executive Committee shall, out of the funds of the Society, pay all proper expenses of administration and management of the Society. After the payment of the administration and management expenses and the setting aside to reserve of such sums as may be deemed expedient, the remaining funds of the Society shall be applied by the Executive Committee in furtherance of the purposes of the Society.

11. INVESTMENT
All moneys at any time belonging to the Society and not required for immediate application for its purposes shall be invested by the Executive Committee in such investment, securities or property as it may think fit, subject nevertheless, where appropriate, to such authority, approval or consent by the Charity Commissioners as may for the time being be required by law or by the special trusts affecting any property in the hands of the Executive Committee.

12. TRUSTEES
Any freehold and leasehold property acquired by the Society shall, and if the Executive Committee so directs any other property belonging to the Society may, be vested in trustees who shall deal with such property as the Executive Committee may from time to time direct.

a) Any trustees shall be at least 3 in number or a trust corporation.

b) The power of appointment of new trustees shall be vested in the Executive Committee.

c) A trustee need not be a member of the Society but no person whose membership lapses by virtue of clause 4 hereof shall thereafter be qualified to act as a trustee unless and until re-appointed as such by the Executive Committee.

d) The Secretary shall from time to time notify the trustees in writing of any amendment hereto and the trustees shall not be bound by any such amendments in their duties as trustees unless such notice has been given.

e) The Society shall be bound to indemnify the trustees in their duties (including the proper charge of a trustee being a trust corporation) and liability under such indemnity shall be a proper administrative expense.

13. ACCOUNTS
The Executive Committee shall comply, where appropriate, with their legal obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to:

a) the keeping of accounting records for the Society;

b) the preparation of the annual statements for the Society;

c) the independent examination of the statements of account of the Society;

d) the transmission of the statements of account of the Society to the Charity Commission.

14. ANNUAL REPORT
The Executive Committee shall comply, where appropriate, with their legal obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Charity Commission.

15. ANNUAL RETURN
The Executive Committee shall comply, where appropriate, with their legal obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Charity Commission.

16. AMENDMENTS
This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of members present at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of the Society, provided that 28 days’ notice of the proposed amendment has been given to all members, and provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise any amendment the effect of which would be to cause the Society at any time to cease to be a charity in law, and provided further that no amendment shall be made to Clause 2, Clause 18 or this Clause until the approval in writing of the Charity Commissioners or other authority having charitable jurisdiction shall have been obtained.
